DOWN FROM HEAVEN

A Little Boy Claims to Have Been There.

ASLEEP TWENTY-ONE DAYS.

The Boy Sleeper, of Seymour, Indiana, Begins Another Long Nap—He Relates His Experience While in Dreamland. A Case That Baffles the Physicians.

COLUMBUS, Ind. July 18.—Little Jesse Stritt, of Seymour, is asleep again. Eighteen months ago he startled the medical fraternity in this part of the state by his constant sleep of twenty-one days, during all of which time he could not be aroused. A few months before he fell asleep he fell from a barn loft, lighting upon his feet, from which it was thought at the time that he had sustained an internal injury of the spine which caused his long sleep.

From this sleep he rallied, and imparted the information to his parents that he had been in heaven, from which place he looked down upon his father while engaged at work in Illinois. He related at that time the exact work in which his father was engaged in an adjoining state while he was asleep. This caused much comment at the time, and attracted much attention to young Stritt. For four months after this awakening he was natural in his sleep, and gained much strength.

Some six months ago he informed his mother, who has kept a constant watch over him, that he was again going to sleep, and notwithstanding all efforts to keep him awake, fell asleep, from which he was not aroused for seven consecutive days, during all of this time he neither ate nor drank anything. Arousing from this nap, which is now called his short one, he again became natural in his habits and grew very rapidly.

About 11 o'clock yesterday he asked his mother to cook him a certain vegetable for his dinner, which she did not have in the house. This she consented to do, and asked him to go to a store near by and purchase it. Entering the store he said to the clerk, "I want a quarter's worth—" which he repeated several times, and sank upon the floor, and as he did so, murmured "mamma." Since that time he has been in a profound sleep. He is very pale, breathes regularly, with natural pulsation and not the slightest indication of fever or pain, and does not move. His eyes are closed, but the lids are easily turned back, but close again. No physician can give a possible reason for his strange conduct.

A LIVE LIZARD

In a Young Lady's Stomach for Six Weeks.

NEW PHILADELPHIA, O., July 18.—For the last six weeks the case of Callie Stevens, a well known lady of this city, has baffled the skill of all the local physicians. Miss Stevens up to that time had been in good health, but one day she became suddenly ill and went into one spasm after the other.

A physician was called, but he could afford no relief. She grew worse week by week until her life was despaired of. The mystery of the peculiar case was solved Thursday night, when, after some three hundred spasms, Miss Stevens was taken with a fit of vomiting that brought up a live lizard fully four inches in length.

The reptile lost no time in getting away from its enforced and unnatural place of confinement, and was soon lost to sight in the grass in the yard, where the young lady was standing at the time of her attack of vomiting.

Miss Stevens after being relieved of the reptile at once improved. How the lizard was taken into the stomach is not known.

PUBLIC EXECUTION.

Harry Christian, a Colored Desperado, Hanged at Perryville, W. Va.

ROANOKE, Va., July 18.—A special from Bluefield, W. Va., to The Times, says: Harry Christian, the colored desperado, who murdered Detective Crowe, at Perryville, W. Va., last January, was publicly hanged at Perryville yesterday morning before an immense crowd.

Christian made a confession on the scaffold and claimed that whisky and gambling were responsible for his untimely end. The crowd was an unruly one and a number of fights between whites and blacks were indulged in.

Christian was one of the worst desperadoes in this part of the country and implicated in a number of crimes. Perryville is thirty-two miles from a railroad station, and the crowd traveled there in vehicles of every description and a great many walked miles to see the execution.

An Unparalleled Case.

WOOSTER, O., July 18.—There died near Creston yesterday a Mrs. Diller Johnson, a lady well known, of consumption. Some thirteen years ago, while a resident of Wooster, she was declared by her physician to be suffering from abdominal pregnancy, and having herself ever since believed that she was carrying the remains of an unborn babe, it was decided to hold a post-mortem. This was conducted by Drs. Bingham, of Seville, and Krestrick and Kinney, of Creston, and proved highly interesting. In the abdominal cavity they found the bony skeleton of a full formed child, which she had carried for thirteen years, and during that time gave birth to a healthy child, a boy, now nearly eight years of age.

Off to Behring Sea.

PORT TOWNSEND, Wash., July 18.—The United States Marion will start for Behring sea Monday. The Marion will join the Behring sea patrol at Unalakleet. She is commanded by Lieutenant Commander Bartlett.

CHINA AND JAPAN.

Another Steamer Arrived from Hong Kong and Yokohama.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 18.—The steamer Belgic which arrived from Hong Kong and Yokohama yesterday, brings news that the ferment in the north of China is spreading. Two Englishmen, a missionary and a customs officer, were brutally murdered at Wusueh.

The two murdered men were A. W. Greens, a Methodist missionary, and a customs officer named Argent. While Argent was walking through the streets he was attacked by a mob, struck on the head with a stone and knocked senseless. The crowd seeing him fall, at once rushed up and shattered his head with a large flat stone. Green was attacked in his house and is reported to have had his throat cut and in addition to have been badly mutilated about the head. A Cantonese woman belonging to Green is also said to have been murdered, but before she succumbed to attacks of her assailants she killed three of the ruffians with a Japanese sword.

The French church, orphanage and adjoining premises at Woosich, near Soochow, have been destroyed. The foreign ministers are said to have sent a joint note to the government demanding that measures be taken for the protection of foreign life and property in China.

While a junk was on its way from Pinghoi to Hong Kong recently, it was attacked by a band of pirates in small boats. Seven of the crew of the junk were killed and the remaining nine jumped into the sea and were rescued by a fishing boat and put ashore. The pirates sailed away with the junk.

TOM BROWNE IS DEAD.

The Man Who So Long and So Well Represented the Burnt District.

INDIANAPOLIS, July 18.—General Tom Browne, who for so many years represented the "burnt district" in congress, died at Martinsville, Ind., yesterday.

Thomas M. Browne was born at New Paris, O., April 19, 1829; removed to Indiana in January, 1844; received a common school education; studied law at Winchester, and was admitted to the bar in 1849; was elected prosecuting attorney for the thirteenth judicial circuit in 1855, and re-elected in 1857 and 1859; was secretary of the state senate of Indiana in 1861 and represented Randolph county in that body in 1863; assisted in organizing the Seventh volunteer cavalry, and went to the field with that regiment as its lieutenant colonel, was promoted to its colonelcy, and subsequently commissioned by President Lincoln brigadier general by brevet.

He was appointed in April, 1869, United States attorney for the district of Indiana, and resigned that office Aug. 1, 1872; was the Republican candidate for governor of Indiana in 1872, and was defeated by Thomas A. Hendricks; elected to the Forty-fifth, Forty-sixth, Forty-seventh, Forty-eighth and Forty-ninth congresses, and was re-elected to the Fiftieth congress as a Republican, receiving 20,397 votes against 12,253 votes for Jones, Democrat. He declined a renomination to the Fifty-first congress because of ill-health.

RUMORS OF A WRECK.

Meat Train Wrecked and Nine Persons Killed.

KENTON, O., July 18.—A report just received in this town says that Swift's fast running refrigerator meat train collided with a work train at Hepburn, a small station on the Chicago and Erie railroad, and that nine laborers were killed and many others injured. Both locomotives and ten or twelve cars are in the ruins. Wires are down, and it is impossible to get further particulars from the scene of the accident.

The Chicago and Erie people are transferring trains around the wreck by way of Toledo, Columbus, Cincinnati, Pittsburg, Fort Wayne and Chicago and Hocking Valley road. What gives rise to suspicion that there is truth in the report about the fatality is the reticence of the company's employees in refusing to state whether any were killed or not, or to give any information whatever about it.

Indians Threaten a Massacre.

MINNEAPOLIS, July 18.—Governor Merriam received news late yesterday afternoon of more trouble on the Mille Lacs reservation. A dispatch signed by representatives of the 300 whites on the reservation says that the Indians are threatening a massacre of all the whites there and appeal is made for immediate protection. The governor has telegraphed to Washington to know what the government will do and says that unless the government will afford the protection asked for he will use the power of the state to defend the settlers. The difficulty is said to be a phase of the trouble on account of cutting of hay on the reservation by the whites.

Getting Back at the Minister.

FINDLAY, O., July 18.—Thursday night a mob in sympathy with the saloons visited Rev. Reidinger's residence at North Ridgeville. After he and his wife had retired, and bombarded the house with boulders and brickbats, breaking in the windows of the lower portion of the house. Mr. Reidinger had been preaching very strongly in favor of temperance, which is presumably the cause of the brutal outbreak.

Danger of an Uprising in Hayti.

NEW YORK, July 18.—The schooner Nahum Chapin which left Hayti, July 13, arrived in port this morning. Captain Avery reported that there was imminent danger of an uprising in the republic.

Only Got Six Years.

NEW YORK, July 18.—George Brown, who waylaid messenger boys and relieved them of their packages, was sentenced to six years' imprisonment yesterday.

Lady Drops Dead.

PORTSMOUTH, O., July 18.—Mrs. Henegar, a prominent lady of this city, dropped dead yesterday morning.

DAMAGES BY FIRE.

Lynn, Massachusetts, Visited by a Conflagration.

LOSS TWO HUNDRED THOUSAND.

One of the Principal Business Blocks of That Place Wiped Out by Fire—No Lives Lost, but Several People Injured. Other Losses by Fire.

LYNN, Mass., July 18.—At 9:30 p. m. a fire started in the third story of Blake's brick block, corner of Union and Mulberry streets, and in twenty minutes had spread to the five-story brick block adjoining, owned by Strout Brothers, and soon threatened the street for a distance of 200 feet. Aid was called from adjoining towns and cities. The Strout building was soon a mass of fire.

At 10:30 a large part of the Strout block walls fell and the flames caught the upper story of the Currier block, owned by B. W. Currier, and with the stock in the clothing store of W. N. Currier & Company on the first floor, valued at $120,000, insurance $90,000. The Currier block and the building was only partially destroyed as the fire was got under control at 10:45.

E. E. Strout, owner of the largest building totally destroyed, said the building cost $45,000, and is insured for $25,000. In this block Dam & Werners, of the continental clothing company, carried a stock of $18,000; insured for $12,000.

John Carniff, shoe manufacturer in the third story, loses about $15,000, insured for $2,000.

H. P. Lego & Company, shoe manufacturers in the fourth and fifth stories, lost nearly $50,000, partially insured.

The losses of the other tenants of this building will aggregate $30,000. The loss on the C. B. Blake building will reach $12,000, and the losses of the tenants will reach $25,000. At 11 o'clock the fire was under control. It is estimated that the loss on the two blocks destroyed, and that of the Currier building, partially burned, together with contents, will reach nearly $200,000.

Wood Works Burned.

NEW YORK, July 18.—The building, 145 Eleventh avenue, occupied by various wood working firms, was damaged $25,000 by fire last night.

CANADIAN GULF FISHERIES.

This Year They Were Total Failures, Owing to the Grip.

QUEBEC, July 18.—The Canadian gulf fisheries this season are a total failure, at least as far as the northern shore and Magdalen islands are concerned. Official information has been received by the dominion agency of the fisheries here from an agent on Grindstone island, who writes that the spring school of cod passed the island while the entire population was down with la grippe, and that none could be caught. For the same reason lobsters, which were very abundant, could not be taken. The factories have all closed down, after sustaining serious losses. The agent writes that unless the autumn mackerel fishing is good there will be dire distress on the island next winter. Since June 5 there have been seventy-five deaths on the island from la grippe.

Texas Fever Reported Epidemic.

ARKANSAS CITY, Kan., July 18.—A prominent Cherokee citizen who arrived here states that hundred of native cattle are dying in the Cherokee nation of Texas fever, having become affected by the thousands of southern cattle recently brought into that country.

Forest Fires in Wisconsin.

NEENAH, July 18.—Advices received here state that terrible forest fires prevail along the Milwaukee and Lake Shore road in the north, and one insurance company in Wisconsin, with its headquarters at Neenah, has ordered all its policies along the line to be cancelled.

Died on a Train.

OMAHA, July 18.—A special from Cheyenne, Wyo., says: Manogi, the Samoon chieftain, who was being sent home with other natives, died on the train between Medicine Bow and Ravins. He could not stand the rarefied air at that altitude, 8,000 feet.

Rigaud Cost $16,000.

PORT-AU-PRINCE, July 18.—Everything is quiet in Hayti, and the government is fully prepared to suppress any outbreak. The Haytian government has settled the French government's claim for an indemnity for the killing of Rigaud by paying a sum of $16,000.

Unit to Live in America.

BOSTON, July 18.—Twenty-eight immigrants, mostly Russian Jews, were not allowed to land from the steamship Michigan on the ground that they were liable to become burdens on the public. They will be sent back by the steamer.

Fatal Fall from a Tree.

CLARKSBURG, W. Va., July 18.—A lady named Dietrich, the wife of one of the most extensive farmers in the state, was instantly killed on her farm, in Tyler county, by falling from a tree from which she was picking cherries.

An Invalid Dying.

BALTIMORE, July 18.—A Lynchburg, Va., special to The Sun says that Thomas Bocoek, ex-speaker of the Confederate congress, is seriously ill at his home in Appomattox county. He has been an invalid for several years.

Heavy Hail Storm in Colorado.

FORT COLLINS, July 18.—This section was visited yesterday evening by a heavy hail storm which utterly ruined the wheat crop in a tract of land twenty miles long and three miles wide. The damage is estimated at $350,000.

FOREIGN HELP FREE

When It Comes Simply to Aid in World's Fair Exhibiting.

WASHINGTON, July 18.—Some doubt having arisen among certain foreign governments as to the effect of the contract labor laws of the United States, as applied to the Chicago exposition of 1893, the secretary of state recently requested an official opinion from the attorney general upon the subject.

The cases presented concerned skilled experts who may come from foreign countries to aid foreign exhibitors in setting up and operating machinery to be brought to the United States and exhibited at the world's Columbian exposition, also clerks, stallkeepers and other persons whose services may be required by foreign exhibitors at that exposition.

After fully discussing the legislation upon the subject the attorney general has rendered an opinion that skilled employes of foreign exhibitors at the Chicago exposition, who came in good faith for the purpose of setting up and operating the machinery of such exhibitors, are outside of and not subject to the contract labor laws of the United States.

The same opinion is expressed with reference to clerks, stallkeepers and other persons coming to the United States for the sole purpose of aiding foreign exhibitors.

The attorney general says: "This would seem, in all fairness, to be the clear and reasonable intent of the legislation as affecting the great exposition enterprise and in harmony with the spirit and purpose of the act of congress approved April 25, 1890, providing for the due and proper celebration of the 400th anniversary of the discovery of America by Christopher Columbus."

Ecuador's Exhibit.

Mr. W. P. Tisdell, commissioner to Ecuador for the world's Columbian exposition, writes from Quito under date of June 10:

"The president says that he has decided to have here in Quito early in the coming year a national exposition and in this way he hoped and expected to make a good showing of the industries of Ecuador. He says further that he will take from the national museum the most interesting objects and transfer all to the Chicago exposition. There is strong disposition on the part of all the cabinet to build in Chicago an exact imitation of an Inca temple building which exists here and I think this will be exhibited."

Carlisle Talks.

NEW YORK, July 18.—Hon. John G. Carlisle, who was in the city yesterday, said to a reporter: "Some of the Kentucky newspapers have been throwing dirt at me saying that I had been presented with a house and lot by the Frankfort lottery people on account of my opposition to the adoption of the new constitution, but I will survive their slanders and attend to business at the old stand. Kentucky's future depends much on the material selected for the new legislature. If they elect enough Farmers' Alliance people, the state will go backward a hundred years or more. What they want is young, active, sensible Democrats at the helm, and then progression is sure."

Scattered Over Two Acres of Ground.

CHEYENNE, Wyo., July 18.—Two drunken Finlanders placed a target against the powder house at Rock Springs, the big coal camp of the state, yesterday afternoon, and began practice. Their remains were scattered over two acres of ground. Three children and three women were hurt and nearly every window was broken. Some mine workings were damaged and six freight cars demolished. The magazine contained 1,200 pounds of black powder, 600 pounds of dynamite and a barrel of giant powder cans.

Overtaken by Their Pursuers.

LITTLE ROCK, July 18.—Robert Dempsey and his wife, living near Conway, returned home late Wednesday night, and on entering their house they found the front room spattered with blood and the dead body of a man lying across the bed. In another place the body of a young man was found. Both had been riddled with bullets. The interior of the house showed that a terrible fight had taken place. It is supposed the two men were fugitives from the Indian territory and had been overtaken by pursuers.

Did Not Hear the Train.

CHICAGO, July 18.—While Mrs. Eliza Hauser, with her two children, Milena, a girl of 11, and Lawrence, a boy of 14, were crossing the tracks of the Panhandle road, at 1:19 yesterday afternoon, in a buggy, a southbound passenger train crashed into the vehicle, wrecking it and instantly killing Mrs. Hauser and her daughter and badly bruising the boy. Mrs. Hauser had the curtains of the buggy drawn, in anticipation of a rain storm, and did not see or hear the approaching train.

Fired on by Unknown Assassins.

ARKANSAS CITY, Ark., July 18.—News reached here yesterday of the assassination of Dr. C. Buckner, near Dermott, Chicott county, Wednesday night. He was at home alone sitting in the front gallery when some fired from the darkness. One charge entered his breast and the other his head, killing him instantly. His body was found half an hour later by his colored cook who was visiting a neighbor. So far no clew to the assassin has been found.

The Wages of Sin.

WINCHESTER, Ky., July 18.—Til Downey attacked Alice Price, his mistress, near Wade's mills yesterday, and cut her dangerously in the back. He was followed by George Price, a son of the woman, and overtaking him the two engaged in a terrible and bloody fight, in which Price was literally hacked to pieces with a knife. He is expected to die at any moment, and his mother may also die. Downey was arrested, and is hurt but little.

EVENING BULLETIN.

DAILY, EXCEPT SUNDAY.
ROSSER & McCARTHY,
Proprietors.

SATURDAY, JULY 18, 1891.

DEMOCRATIC STATE TICKET.

For Governor,
JOHN YOUNG BROWN.
For Lieutenant Governor,
M. C. ALFORD.
For Attorney General,
W. J. HENDRICK.
For Auditor,
L. C. NORMAN.
For Treasurer,
H. S. HALE.
For Register of Land Office,
G. B. SWANGO.
For Superintendent Public Instruction,
E. PORTER THOMPSON.
For Clerk of Court of Appeals,
ABRAM ADDAMS.
For Representative,
DR. JOHN M. FRAZEE.

THE many friends and admirers of Hon. C. J. Bronston would like to hear him in the present campaign. Can't the Executive Committee arrange with him for a speech here before the fight closes?

GOVERNOR BUCKNER will take the stump next week in the interest of his party's ticket. He is billed for seven speeches. You can always rely on the Governor in a fight against the G. O. P. and for Democracy.

SENATOR CARLISLE says what is needed in Kentucky now is active, sensible Democrats at the helm, and then progression is sure. Let's all vote for the State ticket Aug. 3rd. The nominees are all able, active, sensible men.

HON. P. W. HARDIN is announced to speak at Flemingsburg next court day, July 27. Major A. T. Wood is also billed to speak there that day, and arrangements are trying to be made for a joint discussion. It is safe to say Mr. Wood will not consent to meet Mr. Hardin.

MAYSVILLE is to have a shirt factory in operation by September 1. The seven-acre city is destined to spread out over eight or ten acres if it continues to encourage manufactures.—Lexington Transcript.

It spread out over three or four hundred acres several years ago. Come down and you'll find the biggest, best, and liveliest "little city" in the State.

MICHIGAN's first Democratic Legislature in ten years made the State taxes lighter than they have been in years. The same is true of New York's Legislature, the first Democratic Legislature in that State for years. Democrats believe in an economical administration of Government, State and National.

It isn't a very exalted opinion Senator Carlisle has of the Farmers' Alliance. In an interview this week at New York City, he said "Kentucky's future depends much on the material selected for the new Legislature. If they elect enough Farmers' Alliance people the State will go back 100 hundred years or more."

THE Louisville Commercial has a special from Covington which says Hon. H. H. Houston, Republican nominee for Lieutenant Governor, riddled the Democracy in his speech at that place. Those who heard Mr. H. at this point are satisfied he isn't able to riddle anything in a public speech. He wouldn't make a success as a riddler.

SPEAKING of Postmaster General Wanamaker and his connection with the Keystone Bank failure at Philadelphia, the New York World says: "Mr. Harrison owes it to his own self-respect, to the other members of his Cabinet, to the party which has honored him and to the American people to insist that this man of smirched reputation shall effectually clear himself of the scandal or instantly quit the Cabinet."

These be plain words but there are just lots of people who entertain the same opinion as the World on this subject.

THE Owen News uses very strong language in its reference to S. B. Erwin, the People's party nominee for Governor. It says: "He is the man who, as President of the State Alliance, tried to sell out the warehouse of the Tobacco Growers' Association to the big syndicate of warehouses in Louisville, and he nearly succeeded, but his actions were discovered and he was deposed and an honorable man installed in his place. Is such a man worthy of the vote of anybody? Let your vote, farmer, answer for itself."

"The glowing Ruby should adorn Those who in warm July are born, Thus will they be exempt and free From love's doubts and anxiety."

Ballenger, the jeweler, has a complete line of birthday rings.

Children Enjoy

The pleasant flavor, gentle action and soothing effects of Syrup of Figs, when in need of a laxative and if the father or mother be costive or bilious the most gratifying results follow its use, so that it is the best family remedy known and every family should have a bottle.

JUDGE WARDER.

An Account of His Suicide as Detailed by His Family and Others.

Further Light on the Terrible Tragedy That Led to His Death.

Mention was made this week of the suicide of Judge James A. Warder, at the Stone Mansion on Lookout Mountain. He had many friends among the older citizens of Maysville and many relatives in this city and county, to whom the details of the sad affair will prove of interest. The Chattanooga Times says only three witnesses were examined at the Coroner's inquest—R. P. Shelton, Mrs. Nannie Warder and Mrs. Judge Warder.

Captain Shelton testified that he had been to Natural Bridge Springs, and was returning about 11 o'clock to his cottage whistling. Noticing the lights in the house were out he ceased whistling, fearing to disturb the inmates who he supposed were asleep. As he entered the house from the rear, he heard the distressing cries from the ladies, and, realizing what had occurred, hurried into the room. He found Judge Warder upon the bed and in the room the ladies. Asking the mother what was the matter she had pointed to a revolver lying upon the mantel. He had freely bathed Judge Warder's face and head, both covered with blood. The deceased had not spoken, and it was at once evident that he was dying. He had sent for Dr. Green, but that gentleman had referred the messenger to Dr. Finley, a gentleman who was visiting upon the mountain. Judge Warder had died about 1:30. The shooting had occurred at 11. Where Judge Warder had secured his weapon he did not know. Care had been exercised at the cottage to keep him from securing a pistol, and Mrs. Stone, a sister of the deceased, had told him that she had carefully examined the room and was sure no weapon was about. He was sure Judge Warder was of unsound mind. The deceased had been very restless, never remaining in one place for any length of time. He would sit awhile upon the front porch, then suddenly go to his room, then leave his room and occupy another. His entire mind seemed to be upon the tragedy of five months ago. He had asked what the people thought of the matter. It was almost impossible to interest him in any matter. He had shown some little interest in Chancellor McConnell's appointment, and remarked that it was a good selection, and had also discussed the work of the office, but the interest was short lived, and a few moments later he had appeared utterly oblivious of every one. Ten days ago Judge Warder had attempted to take his life. Under directions from his physician he had been taking bromide. On the day in question he had gathered up all the medicine in the house and had prepared to take the entire quantity when detected by Mrs. Stone, who was then in the house. The lady took away the drug and had told him that Judge Warder had discussed with him the taking of his life, admitting that it had been his intention to suicide. Judge Warder had been in the city Thursday afternoon. He had no conversation with him upon his return.

The jury then adjourned into the front room where the ladies were awaiting them. Mrs. Judge Warder was sitting upon the bed and the aged mother was standing. Mrs. Judge Warder was the first examined. She testified that Judge Warder had been to the city. She had been with him early in the evening, and had left his mother in the room with him. When first alarmed the ladies had gone into the room and in a few moments realized her husband had taken his life. The lady appeared to be suffering, and so pitiable were her glances that the jury relieved her of reciting the details. Then the aged mother, her voice trembling, but clear in her answers, told her story, and as she spoke the jury, most of them familiar with scenes that try men's souls, were moved until there were but few eyes in which glistened tears. The wife and mother of the poor unfortunate were close together, the former sitting, her form trembling and shaking convulsively with the weight of all her recent trials, while the latter was evidently acting the part of a consoler.

Straight and erect, a sweet womanly old lady, the mother held back her almost overpowering grief with heroic fortitude. Never before was a Coroner's jury so thoroughly impregnated with a picture of woe as that never-to-be-forgotten scene impressed itself upon them. Instinctively and as one man their voices were hushed and their eyes bent upon the picture before them.

She told how the Judge seemed morose and absent minded for some time, but the day before he seemed more cheerful and even for a while talked rationally and hopefully of events that were to come. "He left on the train for the city shortly before dinner," she continued. "Shortly before 6 o'clock in the evening he returned, and we three sat out on the front porch talking quietly, and seemed more contented and cheerful than we have in months past. After several hours we went into his room, which is just in the rear of the one occupied by his wife and me. Then we too concluded to retire, and I passed through the connecting door and talked to him for a while. I fixed up a sleeping potion such as he had been taking right along. Finally he asked me to fix his bath, and I replied: 'Why, Jimmie, you are not going to bathe to-night yet, are you?' His answer was no, but that he wished it ready for use early in the morning. I told him to never mind, as I would be up early and have it ready by the time he arose.

"Then I got closer to his bedside and said: 'Jimmie, won't you say your prayers now, and go to sleep?'" At this point the lady broke down. Previous to that the testimony had been given clearly and in a connected way. Now a tremor crept into her voice, and the tears coursed down her handsome, motherly face, to whose beauty age has only added a mellowed charm. There was not a dry eye in the room.

"He said he would," she resumed, "and I passed into the front room and directly he called and wanted to know if he should extinguish the light in his room. My answer was that he had better leave that one burn, and I would put out the one in our room. I closed the connecting door and retired. After being in bed a short time, and dozing gradually into sleep, his wife and I heard a crack, and I started involuntarily, but just then we heard some boys laughing out in the road in front of the house, and I thought they had in play broken a stick or something, and attributed the noise to that.

"Within a moment or two we were startled by heavy breathing emanating from my son's room, and then our suspicions were fully aroused and we hurried in. Even then for a while we did not realize that he had taken his own life until I found the pistol lying close by his right. I placed it upon the mantel shelf. We both spoke to him, but he could not answer, and raising his head we saw the blood oozing from his right ear. Mr. Shelton then came in."

Coroner Gahagan asked a few questions, all answered promptly, and the jury withdrew. After the examination of the body and the weapon a verdict was rendered to the effect that the deceased had come to his death by his own hand, the weapon a 32-calibre hammerless Smith & Wesson.

Mrs. Judge Warder sent for the representative of the Chattanooga Times after the inquest, and when he answered her call, she said: "I have sent for you, sir, to say that which for many weary days I have wanted to say, but over which I have until now sealed my lips.

"Oh, sir, it is wrong, it is wrong that the impression should go abroad that Judge Warder died because of remorse. It is wrong that the public should think the relations in our home had been unhappy. "He was a kind, indulgent husband, a father devoted to his child. We have had no differences save those which might have occurred in any family. He had his faults, you know them, but that he was unkind or harsh was not one of them.

"The killing of Mr. Fugette was an accidental occurrence likely to occur at any time when men's temper gets the better of their judgment. Mr. Fugette and my husband had no differences, had never quarreled, and their relations were such as those of father and son should be. Between them there was no feud, and no feeling save of love.

"Upon that dreadful Sunday what passed between them was intensified by Judge Warder's condition. The quarrel was a family affair. I am sure the public will not demand its details.

"The quarrel led to the open rupture; but oh, how could they bring so dreadful a charge against Judge Warder. Mr. Fugette came from his room, followed by Mrs. Fugette. Mrs. Fugette passed her husband and also her father, and was behind her father when Mr. Fugette fired the first shot, which struck Judge Warder's hand and glancing off wounded Mrs. Fugette. Then some more shots, and then Judge Warder withdrew into his room, followed by Mr. Fugette. Here Mr. Fugette received the fatal shot. It was in Judge Warder's room, and after Judge Warder had been twice wounded."

R. M. Barton, Jr., of Chattanooga, publishes a card in the Times, of that city, in which he says: "The sensational statement in an evening paper to the effect that Judge Warder was induced to commit suicide by reason of his pride, and because he was 'unwilling to expose family secrets,' is without foundation in fact, and is a cruel and unwarranted reflection both on the dead and the living. That the misfortunes of insanity should be tortured and construed into such false and cruel insinuations is almost unbearable.

"There are no secrets in that family to

PEPPER AND DAVIS.

The Alliance Leaders Not Greeted by a Very Large Crowd.

When Senator Pepper, of Kansas, faced his audience at the court house yesterday afternoon he must have concluded that the Third party is not very popular in this section. It is doubtful whether there were as many as twenty-five members of the Alliance present. His audience, which was not a large one, was composed principally of Democrats and Republicans. Many had a curiosity to see and hear the man who defeated Hon. John J. Ingalls.

Mr. Pepper's speech was largely a repetition of the ones he delivered at Newport, Lexington and Frankfort this week, judging by the reports from those points. He devoted most of his time to a discussion of the financial problems of the day. He spoke of the condition of the farmers, said they had to labor early and late, from one year's end to another, and claimed they are barely eking out an existence, while the money-lenders and millionaires are taking things easy and growing richer every day.

He thought the trouble was caused principally by the contraction of the currency, and gave figures showing what this contraction amounted to. The people want more money. He rejoiced that the Kentucky Democratic convention put in their platform a free silver plank. He wants the Government to loan the people all the money they want at 2 per cent. interest.

Senator Pepper was followed by J. H. Davis, the fiery orator from Texas, who spoke for some time. Mr. Davis shuts his eyes and hits right and left. He denounced both parties in bitter terms, and accused them of legislating against the interests of the people. He made a strong plea for the People's party as the only one in his opinion that could accomplish anything for the masses.

Senator Pepper and Mr. Davis left shortly after the speaking for Vanceburg, where they address the citizens of Lewis to-day. It is a significant fact that while here Mr. Pepper was in conference with some of the leading Republicans.

Mr. ROBERT H. POLLITT, JR., is the only candidate for Constable so far announced in precinct No. 1. He is a clever young gentleman, and asks his friends to give him their active support.

THE Farmers' Alliance of Bracken County has tendered John Finn, Sr., the nomination for Representative. He does not care to make the race, but has the matter under consideration.

SERVICES at the M. E. Church to-morrow at 11 a. m. and 8 p. m. Preaching by Rev. Thomas Hanford, D. D., pastor. Subject for the morning, "St. John the Beloved Disciple." Strangers especially welcomed.

A LARGE stock of scythes, snaths, forks, hoes, wheelbarrows, screen doors and window screens can be found at Frank Owens Hardware Co.'s. The window screens are self-adjusting; will suit any window.

DR. GEORGE H. PERRIN, aged 96 years, died at Cynthia Thursday. His father, Josephus Perrin, was one of the first settlers in Kentucky. He leaves an immense fortune, which he accrued practicing medicine.

A LETTER from "Uncle" Jack Hook says that Dr. Sparks had a walk-over in his race at Decatur, Ill., and that Snipnose won second money in her race. The track was very heavy and Annoreen was beaten by Bermuda Boy.

How SOME papers do mix things up sometimes. The Rushville (Ind.) Republican says: "T. W. Weekley, representing the Limestone Distillery Company, of Maysville, is here visiting relatives." Mr. Wheatley is not weekley.

CHURCH OF THE NATIVITY—The rector, Rev. D. D. Chapin, is spending a few weeks at Sewanee, Tenn., but there will be services at 11 a. m. to-morrow, at which Rev. C. B. Hudgins, a former rector of the parish, will officiate.

A MERRY party of young ladies of the Fifth ward will leave this evening on the steamer Chancellor on a trip to Portsmouth. Captain Tom Nolin, the clever and courteous steward of the steamer, will chaperone the party. They will return Monday.

THE Covington, Flemingsburg and Ashland Railroad has filed articles of incorporation at Flemingsburg. This is the new name for the little narrow gauge running from Johnson Junction to Hillsboro. There is talk of extending it so as to connect with the N. N. and M. V. at Salt Lick.

SAYS the Owen News: "The stranger who is doing the talking for the Farmers' Alliance in Owen County, makes his headquarters in Owenton, and every time he comes in from a tour of the county is seen in close conference with members of the Republican committee. He is the same man who advocated the nomination of an Alliance candidate for Representative."

THE grand jury yesterday returned an indictment against Deputy Marshal Jas. Downey for manslaughter for killing "Epher" Lewis, colored, a few months ago.

THE Millersburg correspondent of the Bourbon News says: "Mrs. Tom Worthington, of Mason, is up to see her daughter, Mrs. James Carpenter, who has a fine daughter."

AN abstract of the fourteenth installment of the Kentucky war claims has been filed with the Third Auditor of the United States Treasury. This abstract calls for $120,000.

SAM POLLITT, of the Burtonville and Tollesboro bus, will run through to Esculapia Springs daily during the season. Leaves Maysville at 1:30 p. m. Leaves Esculapia at 6 a. m. j11d6t

FIVE indictments were reported yesterday by the grand jury—one for manslaughter, one for horse stealing, one for false swearing and two for carrying concealed a deadly weapon.

THERE will be preaching at the Baptist Church to-morrow at the usual hours by the pastor. Subject at 11 a. m.: "The Kingdom of Heaven Taken by Violence." Subject at 8 p. m.: "Ezekiel's Vision of the Holy Waters." Miss Lelia Wheeler will sing a solo at the evening service. Everybody cordially invited to both services.

THE Masonic Grand Lodge (colored), in session at Frankfort this week elected the following officers for the ensuing year: M. W. Grand Master, Charles Steele, Georgetown; Deputy Grand Master, Sandy D. Martin, Lexington; G. S. W., M. T. Clay, Lexington; G. J. W., J. R. Walker, Maysville; Grand Treasurer, John Hillman, Covington; Grand Secretary, W. P. Annis, Louisville.

MINER'S MAXIMS.

IF YOU ARE Really Anxious to Fight Against an Invincible Combination, Quarrel With Common Sense and Truth.

THE PLAIN TRUTH

is that we cannot fit all kinds of feet, and we confess it without any hesitation whatever. For instance we draw the line at measuring the foot of a mountain for a shoe; neither do we happen to have a seven league Boot in stock, but we are prepared for all comers, just the same.

THERE ARE SOME

other things at which we draw the line. Dubious advertising methods have no charms for us. You have heard of the animated sandwich? In the larger cities, in all the glory of his exalted profession, he parades the thoroughfares between two bill boards and is paid for doing it.

HAVE YOU EVER,

after a purchase, carried home goods which were wrapped in a flaming advertisement? If you have, you have been made to subserve the purposes of a sandwich. Don't you think that is what may be commonly called "rubbing it in?"

When you take home a pair of MINER'S Shoes, you take them in paper perfectly plain, except to the extent that, in case of loss, the finder will discover on it MINER'S name in small type.

IT'S A LITTLE but straws MATTER, show the direction of the wind. Just one other point: What you take from MINER is as far beyond criticism in all other respects as it is in this.

A REVIEW OF TRADE

Dun & Company's Report for the Past Week.

THE CONDITION OF BUSINESS.

A Remarkable Increase in the Production of Pig Iron—The Depression in the Shoe Trade Has Reached Its End. Wheat Speculation.

NEW YORK, July 18.—R. G. Dun & Company's weekly review of trade says: There is a remarkable increase in the production of pig iron, almost to the unprecedented figures of last year. The capacity of furnaces in blast July 1 is reported as 171,115 tons against 146,782 tons June 1 and 175,727 tons a year ago. For the six months ending with June the production has been about 3,550,000 tons, and shows a decrease in comparison with the last half of last year, amounting to nearly one million tons in coke iron alone.

The sudden increase in production is not in all respects a favorable symptom. No corresponding improvement in the demand for manufactured products is yet seen, and the stocks unsold at only a part of the furnaces are now recorded as amounting to about 480,000 tons, showing a very large increase, particularly in coke iron. Unless demand rapidly improves, the market must soon weaken so far as to test severely the ability of some of the concerns to continue production. Already there is perceptible weakness in the market at Philadelphia, and some concessions in price are noted for pig iron and for plates, while the market for structural iron is extremely dull. As usual of late, the demand for rails is scanty, the market for railroad bonds being still dull and disappointing.

Some improvement in the demand for dry goods is seen at Boston, and it is thought that the depression in the shoe trade has reached its end, more activity being observed. There is a larger business in leather, with steady prices, the production being limited by the tanneries. Sales of wool are larger, amounting to 3,099,000 pounds for the week, and more activity is seen in dry goods, orders for lightweights coming in with fair freedom. Prospects are considered brighter at Philadelphia, though no improvement is yet seen in most branches of trade, but there is more disposition to buy wool and the tone of the market is stronger.

In spite of the usual dullness of the season an improving tendency is seen at Buffalo, and lake shipping revives at Cleveland with a larger demand than a year ago. Orders for clothing are good at Cincinnati, and the retail trade in dry goods brisk. At Detroit manufactures move very fairly, and at Milwaukee trade is helped by improving crop prospects. At Chicago the clothing and shoe trades show an increase over last year, though in dry goods the trade shrinks a little. At St. Paul trade is backward, but prospects are good, and for Minnesota especially bright. Bank clearings at St. Louis exceed last year's by 7 per cent., and money is going out to move crops with freedom, while general trade in all lines is of fair volume. At other northwestern points, without exception, excellent prospects are noted as promising improvement, and at Nashville trade is fair, but dull at Memphis, unsatisfactory at Little Rock, off at Savannah, and sluggish at New Orleans, though a better demand is seen for cotton. At Jacksonville trade is better, with crops in good condition.

The collapse in wheat speculation has come with a fall of eight cents during the past week, but corn is scarce and three and one half cents higher, while oats have declined about one cent. Pork and hog products are higher, coffee has risen one-fourth and oil the same, but cotton is unchanged, and the general course of prices has been downward, as is natural at this season, the fall during the past week having averaged nearly three fourths of 1 per cent. The treasury has paid out during the week $1,600,000 more than it has taken in, besides issuing $1,000,000 new treasury notes, and the market here is well supplied at 1 1/2 to 2 per cent. on call. Other money markets are generally in fair shape and collections fair for the season.

The business failures during the last seven days, as reported to the mercantile agency, by telegraph, number for the United States 244, and for Canada 30, or a total of 274, as compared with a total of 247 last week, and 237 the week previous to the last. For the corresponding week of last year the figures were 207, representing 187 failures in the United States and 20 in the Dominion of Canada.

A Tornado's Track.

DULUTH, July 18.—In Stearns, Sherburne and Benton counties much damage was done to crops by Thursday's tornado. The track of the hail storm was from St. Joseph, passing over St. Cloud, St. Augusta and Fair Haven in Stearns county. Here it crossed the river and struck Haven, Sherburne county, and the southern portion of Benton county. The storm was three to five miles wide and destroyed or seriously damaged 2,500 acres of wheat.

Valuable Newspaper Property.

PITTSBURG, July 18.—The stock of George W. and Joseph P. Reed in The Commercial Gazette, of this city, has been sold to John Cunliff, in the interest of Mrs. Nelson P. Reed, wife of the deceased senior proprietor. The price paid is said to approximate $300,000 cash, the plant being valued at $500,000.

Mines to Start Up.

SPRING VALLEY, Ill., July 18.—The coal mines here will be started up at once. The mine owners have agreed to the propositions of the striking hands for the settlement of the strike which includes the gross weight system of weighing and semi-monthly pay days. The strike has been on since last May.

Followed Her Friend.

WOOSTER, O., July 18.—Mrs. Harry Flohr, a pretty, young and prominent society lady of this city, fell over dead yesterday. She had never been sick a day in her life. Her most intimate friend, Mrs. Charles Ohliger, died in the same manner just a year ago.

FEDERAL RAILWAY EMPLOYEES.

Federated Trainmen Were Expelled and Now the Firemen Are Mad.

CHICAGO, July 18.—There is trouble in the Federated Order of Railroad Employees which recently expelled the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen for standing by the Chicago and Northwestern, when it discharged the switchmen a few weeks ago. The firemen are angry and threaten to pull out on their own hook. The firemen say that it might have been all right to discipline the Chicago and Northwestern trainmen, but it was all wrong to expel the entire order.

Grand Master S. E. Wilkinson, of the Brotherhood of Trainmen, is out with a statement in vindication of the action of his organization in reference to the trouble with the Switchmen's Mutual Aid association, in which he condemns the switchmen's organization for what he calls unfair action toward the trainmen. The charges Wilkinson makes are concurred in by W. A. Sheehan, grand secretary of the Brotherhood of Trainmen.

BURNED TO DEATH.

A Mother and Two Children Enveloped in Flames.

ERIE, Pa., July 17.—Lena, the 6-year-old daughter of a baker named Charles Schwartz, while making a bonfire in the alley at the rear of her home yesterday afternoon, spilled some coal oil over her clothing, and was soon ablaze. The clothing of her baby sister, aged 6 months, also caught fire, and their mother, startled by the children's screams, rushed to the rescue. When neighbors discovered the situation all three were clinging to each other wrapped in flames.

They were speedily stripped of their clothing and everything done to relieve their suffering, but despite prompt medical assistance, Lena died a few hours later in horrible agony and the baby is dying. The mother may survive. Several persons who assisted in the rescue received serious burns.

Summing Up the Evidence.

COLUMBUS, O., July 18.—At 10:30 a. m. Colonel Holmes closed his argument to the jury, having spoken to the jury since 11 o'clock Thursday, and Captain Bargar began speaking for the defense. He confined his efforts principally to breaking down the evidence that Elliott fired the first shot.

Thirty-five witnesses, including the defense's witnesses, said that Elliott fired before Osborn raised his arm. The defense produced four witnesses who thought Osborn fired first. The court room was packed, and many hung about hallways unable to gain admission. Assistant Prosecutor Crum follows Bargar.

No Charge Against Him.

BROOKLYN, July 18.—Captain William H. Saville, of the freight steamer G. R. Booth, on which the dynamite explosion occurred on Monday last, and by which two men were killed, was yesterday discharged from custody. He was arrested for having violated the penal code in carrying explosives not properly labeled. The manifest of the ship disclosed the fact that twenty cases of the cargo contained detonators but were labeled red capsules, consigned to Mortimer Wesner by Shipper Claus Miller, of Hamburg. There was no evidence to the contrary. The government has taken hold of the case.

Pennsylvania's June Coal Output.

PHILADELPHIA, July 18.—Statistician Jones has issued his report of the anthracite coal output for June. The total production was 3,780,322 tons, as compared with 3,445,562 tons in June last, an increase of 334,760 tons. This is by far the greatest tonnage produced in any June and indicates that there is something the matter with the machinery for restricting the output. The enormous production is alarming the trade, and unless some better plan of restriction is adopted than has heretofore been attempted, a decline in prices is considered inevitable.

Overdrawn Money.

OTTAWA, July 18.—L. C. Pereira, assistant secretary of the department of the interior, has been suspended. He appeared before the public accounts committee yesterday, and acknowledged that he had drawn money for extra work performed by himself in his wife's maiden name, and also in that of "Ellen Berry," a fictitious personage. He asserted, however, that he earned all of the money he drew in this way.

Four Boys Drowned.

HALIFAX, N. S., July 18.—On Wednesday evening, Edward D. Wolf, Clarence Murphy, Edward Duggan and William McDonald, ranging in age from sixteen to eighteen, went out in a sailboat in the harbor and have not yet been heard of. It is feared that their boat capsized in a squall and the boys drowned. The empty boat was found down the harbor.

Militia Ordered Home.

SEATTLE, Wash., July 18.—Everything is quiet at the New Castle mines and no further trouble is expected until the evictions begin on Thursday next. The militia have all been ordered home. One hundred and fifty miners have signed a contract with the Black Diamond coal mines. The miners employed by the company have conceded its right to hire and discharge men.

Skipped Out with the Funds.

BOSTON, July 18.—President J. Hollis Kenny, of the Order of the Reliable Friendship, an association organized under New Hampshire laws on April 1 last, is said to have disappeared with the entire funds of the order, amounting, it is estimated, to nearly $5,000. The losers are almost wholly a poor class of women and a few men, and will average about $40 for each.

Drowned While Bathing.

NANTUCKET, Mass., July 18.—Charles Liverpool, of Washington, one of the crew of the United States survey steamer Endeavor, was drowned last evening in the harbor while bathing near the steamer's side. He became exhausted, and before assistance could reach him was dead. The body was recovered.
